1 General Functionality

This section documents overall functionality for the WorldCat Local detailed record. This section does not describe all functions in the detailed record, but is meant as a primer to some of the general functions and information related to the new design, user interaction and the user experience.

1.1 Interactions/Animation

- Smooth scrolling:
Any action that results in a jump to a different part of the page is presented as a smooth scroll so the user can see that the page is scrolling to a different area of the same page. All actions that will result in a smooth scroll to a different part of the same page should be presented with an icon:

Any window that is collapsed should automatically open when a user clicks on something that scrolls to that collapsed window.
- Layered windows:
Any window that is layered and open should close when a user selects a different layered window.

2 Global Views

Global views are displayed at all times on the detailed record regardless of the item.

The following are the global views in the detailed record:

The screenshot shows a WorldCat record for the book "An inconvenient truth : the planetary emergency of global warming and what we can do about it" by Albert Gore. The page features a header with navigation links (Home, Search, UCLA Library) and a search bar. The main content area includes a book cover, title, author information, publisher, edition format, and a summary. A "Preview this item" button is visible. Below the summary, there is a "Get this item" section with buttons for "Borrow or obtain a copy" and "Buy it". A sidebar on the right offers "More like this" suggestions, including subjects and similar items. At the bottom, there are expandable sections for "Details", "Reviews", "Tags", and "Similar Items".

2.1 Header

The masthead links open a browser window, or bring an existing browser window to focus.

The header will be changed on the following screens:

- Detailed record
- Search results
- Advanced search

NOTE: There is a new specification for institution logos – the width size is limited to 275 pixels (height will be proportioned appropriately). PLEASE REVIEW YOUR LOGO – if it exceeds this limit it will be shrunk to fit the specification and may be distorted. If you change your logo, please keep it in the same location on your server. We access the logo via the URL you provided during implementation.

1. Institution logo
2. Institution text
3. Search box with location scoping – conducts a search with a location limit
4. Global menu (Home, Search, NEW “Library Name”)
 - a. NEW “Library Name” – this new dropdown includes the custom web links previously displayed in the upper right hand corner.
5. Sign in or create a WorldCat account for users not logged in
6. Or, welcome <username> for users who are logged into WorldCat with a ‘sign out’ link.
7. “My Library Account (sign in)” (if the library has a custom web link configured for accessing the OPAC user account it will be displayed in the upper right as well as under the drop down on the global menu.)

2.1.1 Branded masthead

2.1.1.1 “Local library Account” sign in

In addition to the WorldCat Account sign in/out link, and if your institution has a custom URL configured that is to the local library account, a link for that “Local library Account” will be displayed.

2.1.2 Global Menus

Menu display when user is logged in to WorldCat Account

Menu display when a user is not logged into a WorldCat account.

1. Home
 - a. WorldCat Home
 - b. About WorldCat
 - c. Help
 - d. Get Email updates
 - e. Feedback
 - f. WorldCat Blog
2. Search
 - a. Search for Library items
 - b. Search lists
 - c. Search contacts
3. My WorldCat
 - a. My profile
 - b. Edit my profile
 - c. Change password
4. Lists
 - a. My lists
 - b. List I'm watching
 - c. Create new lists
 - d. Search lists
5. WCL Institution Name
 - a. Up to 3 custom web links

2.2 Toolbar

The toolbar includes actions that the user can 'do' to the item.

Clicking on a new action in the toolbar will close any open window from the toolbar and open the new window that was selected.

Toolbar view:

1. Return to results - Returns the user to the exact page of results that they were on before landing on the detailed record.
2. Cite – Opens in a new window and also contains the export to Refworks and Endnote functionality.
3. Print – opens the print dialog.
4. Email – opens a window that allows the user to send an email with item details in the body.
5. Add to list.
6. AddThis Bookmark utility.

2.2.1 Sending an item via email

The user will have the ability to send local item information via email and to edit the message and subject before sending.

When a user clicks on the link to 'send email' the dialog box below opens:

Enter recipient e-mail address(es):

Separate multiple addresses with commas (,)

Enter your name:

Enter your e-mail address:

Write a subject line:

Author: Albert Gore ; Melcher Media.
Publisher: New York : Rodale Press, ©2006.
Edition/Format: Book -- : Biography -- English View all editions and formats
Summary: With this book, the author, former Vice President Al Gore brings together leading-edge research from top scientists around the world; photographs, charts, and other illustrations; and personal anecdotes and observations to document the fast pace and wide scope of global warming. He presents, with alarming clarity and conclusiveness - and with humor, too - that the fact of global warming is not in question and that Read more

3.1.3.1.1.1 Examples of Local Online Links for “virtual” groups

The screenshot shows the University of California Libraries interface. At the top right is a "Request" button. The main section is titled "UC Davis Libraries" and contains a "Get it online" section with a "UC eLinks" button. Below this are three links: "Periodicals Archive Online. Restricted to UC Campuses" (v.1(1945)-v.100(1995)), "Periodicals Archive Online. Restricted to UC Campuses" (Selected article text for Sept. 1990), and "OCLC FirstSearch database" (Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit). A "Show more" link is also present. Below the online links is a "Get it from this member of the library group" section with a dropdown menu showing "0 of 24 available". A table lists the holdings:

| Location | Status | Call number | Notes |
|-----------------|-----------------------|----------------|----------------------------|
| Shields Library | Available | PS3523.Lo46 C2 | Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet |
| Another Library | Checked out DUE 05/22 | PS3523.Lo46 C2 | |

At the bottom of the screenshot is the "UC Irvine Libraries" section with a link to "Check availability for this item".

In the virtual group, only local 856 links retrieved from that institution will appear in the “Get it online” section for that institution after a user clicks to get availability at that institution. 3 links will display initially and if there are more, the user can show/hide to see more.

3.1.3.3.1 Displaying Level 2 Place Hold:

Level 2 availability will be shown expanded if there is no level 1 item availability (otherwise it is collapsed) AND:

- The level 2 button will display in the header associated with the level 2 availability (see mockup with “Request”) with associated custom text.
- For shared OPACs, the level 2 button in the header associated with the level 2 availability (in addition to it showing in the level 1 availability) with associated custom text. This means that the institution is using the consortia OPAC to get local availability and place requests.

- If the item is held at level 2, there is no level 2 availability, but there is a level 2 place hold supposed to display (based on the rules above) then display the level 2 place hold with a message:

- a. By default the display is showing libraries holding “any edition” but the user can click on the “just this edition” link to narrow results. They are then presented with the “any edition” link to expand results.

- b. The “any format” links will show more options when selected.

- c. Library
 - i. If the library is stored as a favorite library in a users WorldCat account profile and the user is logged into their WorldCat account then it appears first in the list and a heart icon is shown to the left of library name
 - ii. If the user is affiliated via URL (i.e. osu.worldcat.org), then the library name sorts to the top and a heart icon is displayed next to it.
 - iii. Otherwise, the gray library icon displays next to library name
 - iv. Library name may have a hyperlink that goes to the library catalog of that item in a framed window.
- d. Clicking on “# other formats” brings up a window that has hyperlinks to the other formats of the item held at the library. Clicking on one of those links will search the library catalog for that particular item in a framed window:

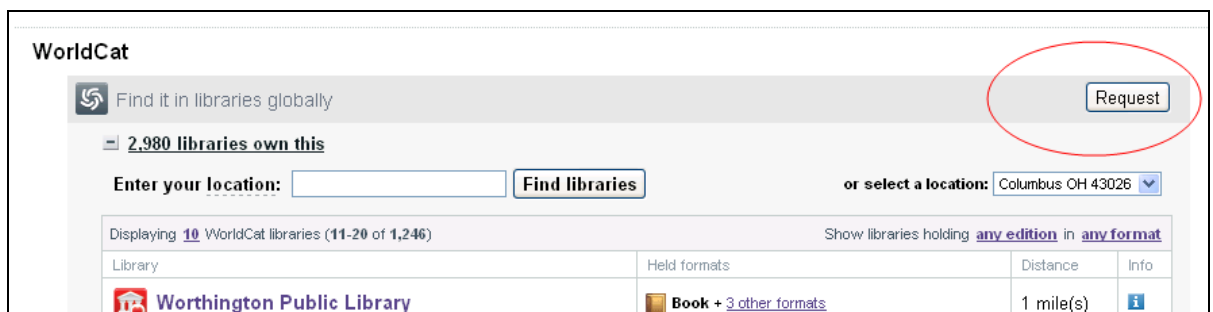

- e. Distance – is the calculated distance from the user’s location

- f. Info – is a small ‘i’ icon that opens a window that contains the library information from the WorldCat Registry (<http://worldcat.org/registry/Institutions/>) when present – library image, library address, library phone number, library hours, library email. A link to go to the library website is also offered when present. All links open in a framed window.

More information: Publisher description |

Abstract:

With this book, the author, former Vice President Al Gore brings together leading-edge research from top scientists around the world; photographs, charts, and other illustrations; and personal anecdotes and observations to document the fast pace and wide scope of global warming. He presents, with alarming clarity and conclusiveness - and with humor, too - that the fact of global warming is not in question and that its consequences for the world we live in will be disastrous if left unchecked.

A story of love that lasts a lifetime
by Antoinette Klein (WorldCat user on 3-15-2002) ★★★★★ Permalink

Nicholas Sparks has become famous for writing the sweet and tender love story that appeals to the romantic in all of us. He doesn't disappoint with "The Notebook" as he weaves the tale of two teenagers, Noah and Allie, who meet one fateful summer and fall in love. Since the course of true love is never smooth, it should come as no surprise that Allie's parents do not approve of her relationship with Noah. ...

A touching tale of true love
by Judith E. Pavlucik (Amazon user on 5-12-2000) ★★★★★ Permalink

After reading a Walk to Remember by Nicholas Sparks, I had to dash off to the library and read The Notebook, which I read in one sitting. What can I say about the quintessential love story? Boy meets girl, girl meets boy, parents separate them and then they meet again years later, get married, and live happily ever after. ...
